

JESÚS MORÁN CEPEDANO

Co-President of the Focolare Movement

Jesús Morán Cepedano was elected Co-President of the Focolare Movement on 1 February 2021 for a second term.

He was born on 25 December 1957 in Navalperales de Pinares, Avila (Spain), of a merchant family that soon moved to Cercedilla, on the Sierra of Madrid.

Shortly after beginning university he met the Gospel message brought by the Focolare Movement through the witness of some of his peers. He immediately threw himself into this new experience and the revolutionary demands that the life of the Gospel entails. He decided to give himself to God in the Focolare community in 1977. After a training period between 1979-1981 in Loppiano, Italy, he crossed the ocean to South America. From 1996 to 2004 he was the delegate of the Focolare Movement in Chile and Bolivia. He was ordained a priest there on 21 December 2002. From 2004 to 2008 he was co-responsible for the movement in Mexico and Cuba.

In the General Assembly of the Focolare Movement in 2008 he was elected general councillor and given responsibility for the cultural formation of the members of the Movement. In 2009 he became part of the "Abba School", the Focolare Movement's interdisciplinary study centre, for his expertise in theological anthropology and moral theology.

At the General Assembly of 2014, on 13 September, he was elected Co-President of the Focolare Movement.

He has a degree in philosophy from the Autonoma University of Madrid and a licence in dogmatic theology from the Pontifical Catholic University of Santiago of Chile. He is currently completing his doctorate in theology at the Pontifical Lateran University in Rome.

He has contributed articles to various periodicals in Spain, Chile, Mexico and Italy.

His books published with Editrice Città Nuova and translated into several languages include: "Fedeltà creativa. La sfida dell'attualizzazione di un carisma" (2016); "Noergia Trinitaria. La esperienza de Dios en Xavier Zubiri" (2019), "Carisma e profezia. Il genio ecclesiale di Chiara Lubich" (2020); "Fedeltà dinamica. La crisi come opportunità" (2023).
